From Saturday April 18, to Tuesday April 21, 1747.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 16th Day of April, 1747.

PRESENT,

The King's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

WHEREAS by Order of his Majeſty in Council of the Twelfth of March laſt, Liberty was given to ſend, drive, or remove, or cauſe to be ſent, driven, or removed, any lean Ox, Bull, Cow, Calf, Steer or Heifer, out of any Town, Pariſh, or Extraparochial Place whatſoever, within that Part of Great Britain called England, to any Fair, Market, or any other Town, Pariſh, or Extraparochial Place within the ſame; or to buy, ſell, or expoſe, or offer to Sale in any ſuch Fair, Market, Town, Pariſh, or Extraparochial Place, any ſuch lean Beaſt or Beaſts as are aforementioned, for and during the Space of three Calendar Months, to be computed and begin from the Twenty-fourth Day of the ſaid Month of March laſt; which Liberty was granted upon this expreſs Condition, That the Perſon or Perſons ſelling ſuch Beaſt or Beaſts, ſhould deliver to the Perſon or Perſons who ſhould buy ſuch Beaſt or Beaſts, ſuch proper Certificate or Certificates as are required by the ſaid Order: — And whereas his Majeſty hath received Information, that though the Diſtemper amongſt the Horned Cattle is entirely ceaſed in the County of Middleſex, and is greatly decreaſed in ſeveral other Parts of the Kingdom, yet that it ſtill continues to rage in ſome other Counties, and hath lately ſpread itſelf into ſeveral Parts of the Counties of Derby and Nottingham on the North Side of the River Trent, inſomuch that there is Reaſon to apprehend, that the permitting any Horned Cattle to be bought and ſold in Fairs and Markets, to be held either in ſuch Places where the Diſtemper may happen to be, or in any Places in the Neighbourhood thereof, may be attended with bad Conſequences, and be a Means of ſpreading the ſaid Diſtemper ſtill further: For the better preventing whereof, his Majeſty doth, by this his Order in his Privy Council, hereby authorize and empower any four Perſons, being Juſtices of the Peace, or Commiſſioners of the Land Tax (authorized by Virtue of an Act of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, to put the ſaid Act and his Majeſty's Orders of Council in Execution) within their reſpective Diviſions, to put a Stop to the holding of any Fairs or Markets, for the buying and ſelling of ſuch Horned Cattle, where they ſhall apprehend the holding thereof may be attended with the Danger of ſpreading the ſaid Diſtemper, for and until the Twenty-fourth Day of June next. And his Majeſty doth hereby ſtrictly forbid the ſending, driving, or removing, or cauſing to be ſent, driven, or removed, any ſuch Beaſt or Beaſts, to any ſuch Fair or Market. And the ſaid Juſtices and Commiſſioners are hereby authorized and required to cauſe publick Notice to be given of the putting a Stop to ſuch Fairs or Markets, and to iſſue their Orders to the chief Conſtable, or Headborough of the Hundred, Lath, Rape, or Wapentake, and to the Petty Conſtables of the reſpective Pariſhes within the ſame, to prevent the holding ſuch Fair or Market. And if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall preſume to drive, remove, or ſend, or cauſe to be driven, removed, or ſent, any ſuch Beaſt or Beaſts, to ſuch Fair or Market, contrary to the Orders iſſued by the ſaid Juſtices or Commiſſioners in that Behalf, ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo offending, ſhall be carried before ſome neighbouring Juſtice, or Commiſſioner as aforeſaid, to be dealt with according to Law.

And

[Price Four-pence.]

And whereas his Majeſty was pleaſed by his Order in Council of the Twelfth of March laſt, (for obviating any Doubts that might ariſe about driving Oxen in the Plough, Cart, &c.) to allow of and permit Oxen to be drove in the Plough, Cart, Waggon, and other Carriages, from one Pariſh to another, upon Condition that no Diſtemper had been, or ſhould afterwards happen to be amongſt the Horned Cattle within Twenty Miles of the Pariſh or Place from which, or to which ſuch Oxen ſhould be ſo driven. And whereas it hath been this Day repreſented to his Majeſty, that notwithſtanding the ſaid Permiſſion, it hath ſo happened in ſeveral Parts of the Kingdom, that many Farmers and others have not received the Benefit thereby intended, in regard the ſaid Diſtemper hath in ſome Counties ſpread itſelf within Twenty Miles of every Town and Village thereof; his Majeſty taking the ſame into Conſideration, and being deſirous to remove any Impediments upon Husbandry, ſo far as may be done with Safety, is pleaſed, by this his Order in his Privy Council, to permit and allow, that from henceforward, Ox Teams in any Kind of Carriages may be driven from one Pariſh, or Place, to another, provided ſuch Teams be not driven nearer than three Miles to any Place where the Diſtemper is, or ſhall happen to be amongſt the Horned Cattle; and provided alſo, that before ſuch Oxen ſhall be permitted to be ſo driven, a Certificate be obtained under the Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals of one or more Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace for the County, Riding, Diviſion, City, Liberty, or Town Corporate, or of one or more Commiſſioner or Commiſſioners of the Land Tax as aforeſaid, or in Caſe no ſuch Juſtice of the Peace or Commiſſioner of the Land Tax, authorized as aforeſaid, be reſident within three Miles of the Place from whence ſuch Ox Team ſhall be driven, then under the Hand and Seal of the Rector, Vicar, or Curate of the Pariſh from whence ſuch Team ſhall be driven, or in his Abſence, of the Rector, Vicar, or Curate of ſome Neighbouring Pariſh, ſpecifying the Name or Names, and Place or Places of Abode of the Perſon or Perſons to whom the ſaid Ox Team doth belong; and that upon Examination on Oath of one or more credible Perſon or Perſons, it appeared to him or them, that the ſaid Oxen, and the Herd or Herds out of which the ſame was or were taken, had been, for the Space of two Calendar Months before the Date of ſuch Certificate, entirely free from the ſaid Diſtemper or Infection. And whereas by Order of his Majeſty in Council of the Twelfth of March laſt, it was directed amongſt other Things, that no Hides or Skins ſhould be ſuffered to paſs over the Severn Weſtward, or any of the other Rivers therein named, for the Space of three Calendar Months, to commence from the Twenty-fourth Day of the ſaid Month of March: And whereas it has been repreſented to his Majeſty in Behalf of the Tanners of the Pariſh of St. John's near the City of Worceſter, and within the Liberties thereof, though ſeparated therefrom by a Bridge over the River Severn, that the ſaid Tanners are engaged in an annual Contract with the Butchers of the ſaid City of Worceſter, to take the Hides and Skins of the Beaſts and Calves which ſhall be ſlaughtered within the ſaid City; but that they are reſtrained from carrying the ſame from thence into the ſaid Pariſh of St. John's by Reaſon of the ſaid Pariſh being ſituated on the Weſtward Side of the ſaid River, and therefore humbly praying, in regard to the particular Circumſtances of their Caſe, and to the enabling them to fulfil their Contract with the ſaid Butchers, that they may be allowed to carry the Hides and Skins of Beaſts and Calves ſlaughtered in the ſaid City of Worceſter croſs the Bridge to their Tann Pits at St. John's; His Majeſty taking the ſame into Conſideration, and having received Information that not only the City, but the whole County of Worceſter hath been free from the ſaid Diſtemper, is hereby pleaſed, in regard thereto, and to the particular Circumſtances attending the Caſe of the Tanners at St. John's, to order, by and with the Advice of his Privy Council, that Liberty be granted to the Tanners living at St. John's aforeſaid, to carry over the Severn Weſtward the Hides and Skins of Beaſts and Calves ſlaughter'd in the ſaid City of Worceſter, notwithſtanding any Thing contained in the aforementioned Order of Council of the Twelfth of March laſt to the contrary; provided the ſaid Tanners do firſt obtain ſuch Certificates, as to the Health of the Beaſts and Calves from which ſuch Hides and Skins ſhall be taken, as are required by his Majeſty's Order of Council of the Seventeenth of December laſt to be obtained upon the ſelling Hides or Skins.--And for the better notifying of this Order, it is his Majeſty's Pleaſure, that the ſame be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and be alſo inſerted in the London Gazette, and be likewiſe read, together with the ſaid former Orders of Council, in all Pariſh Churches, Chapels, and other Places ſet apart for Divine Worſhip, on ſuch Sunday in every Calendar Month, as the Miniſter of ſuch Pariſh ſhall think proper, according to what is required by the Act paſſed this preſent Seſſion of Parliament.

Naples, March 14, N. S. On the 8th Inſtant anchored in this Port a Tranſport Veſſel from Genoa, with Recruits for the King's Troops; as did one of the King's Half Gallies, eſcorting a Veſſel with the Baggage and Domeſticks of the Prince of Campo Florido, Ambaſſador from the King of Spain to this Court, which was a conſiderable Time detain'd by an Engliſh Privateer, and releaſed ſince at Leghorne by Virtue of the Paſſports from his Britannick Majeſty and the King of Sardinia. On the 9th anchored likewiſe three other Tranſports, whereof one from Port Lungone with Invalids, and two from Meſſina with the ſecond Battalion out of the Foot Regiment Royal Naples, in Garriſon there. On the 10th arrived here from Rome, Madame Fogliani, the Secretary of State's Lady. On the 11th the Duke de la Vieu Ville departed from this Port for Palermo, on board the King's Frigate, Notre Dame de la Conception, to take upon him that Government as Viceroy of Sicily.

Rome, March 18. Notice was ſent the other Day from Oſtia and Nettunno to this City, that ſeveral Tranſport Veſſels with Troops from Naples, ſail'd in Sight of thoſe Ports for the Preſidii. Prince Corſini, it is ſaid, on his Return from Sicily, will be appointed to ſucceed Cardinal Acquaviva as Miniſter from the Court of Naples to the Pope. On the 16th M. Sampario, the Portugueſe Miniſter, had a long private Audience of the Pope.

Florence, March 18. Threatning Letters were put up in the laſt Week in different Parts of this City, abuſing the new Fiſcal, with Menaces to ſhoot him. By Directions from the Court of Vienna, there are packing up, in order to be ſent thither, ſeveral Machines and other Mathematical Inſtruments made by the late M. Varange, the Emperor's Profeſſor of Mathematicks, as likewiſe a Collection of large Machines, which were made for the Uſe of the late Cardinal de Medicè, who eſtabliſhed a very renowned Academy for that Study.

Lisbon, April 7. Beſides the two Spaniſh Prizes brought in here ſome Time ſince, one of 30000 l. Sterling Value, bound from Cadiz to Buenos Ayres, and the other of above 100000 l. for the Havannah and La Vera Cruz, by the Squadron of Engliſh Privateers call'd the Royal Family, there has been likewiſe brought into our Port by Commodore Leg, three homeward bound Martinico Men, loaden with Sugar, Indigo, and Coffee, valued at about 6000 l. each; another of about the ſame Value by Captain Keppel, of the Maidſtone, (who took two, but one of them ſunk at Sea) and a Fifth laſt Week worth 10000 l. by the Dreadnought Privateer.

Hague, April 28, N. S. By Yeſterday's Letters from Bruſſels, Marſhal Saxe was returned thither incognito from Antwerp. The French Troops were ſtill in their Cantoonments, and were, as they gave out, to remain ſo till the Surrender of Sas van Ghent, which it ſeems was much retarded by the Inundation. The Body of Troops that aſſembled in the Neighbourhood of Sedan, and were ſaid to be deſtined for the Siege of Luxembourg, were arriving daily about Bruſſels to join Marſhal Saxe. A Battalion of Militia was ſent Yeſterday to Antwerp, and the Switzers to Mechlin. The French Guards were to arrive this Day and cantoon in the Suburbs of Bruſſels. There were 1500 Sailors or Fiſhermen aſſembled at Ghent, and 200 Boats upon the Schelde, deſigned, as it is thought, for an Expedition againſt Zealand, as ſoon as that River is cleared of the Dutch Forts. The Paris Letters of the 24th, N. S. mention the Time of the French King's Departure for the Army as ſtill undetermined; but the Officers of his Houſhold, and his Equipages, were already ſet out for Bruſſels; as Marſhal Belleiſle was to do in a few Days for Provence. The Duke de Bouffleurs was gone for Marſeilles in his Way to Genoa; where, it was hoped, he would have the ſupreme military Command of that Republick. We hear from Marſeilles, that the Grand Prior of France was to ſail with his Gallies for Antibes the 20th or 21ſt of this Month, in order to favour the Attack which M. de Chevret was to make upon the Iſlands of St. Marguerite and St. Honorat. They write alſo, that the French Tranſports which took Refuge at Monaco, ſailed from thence the 2d, but came back again in an Hour by contrary Winds, excepting one, which had not been heard of ſince.

Hague, April 29, N. S. The States of Zealand having on the 25th Inſtant declared his moſt Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange Stadtholder, Admiral and Captain General of that Province; and the Town of Rotterdam having followed the Example, and ſent a Deputation hither to the States of Holland to deſire their Concurrence, it is thought that his Highneſs

Highneſs will be declared Stadtholder of this Province in a few Days.

Rotterdam, April 29. The Engliſh Men of War cruizing off Fluſhing, have taken and carried up to that Place four Blankenberg Fiſhermen, and a French Privateer. The Letters which came from the Allied Army laſt Night, ſay, that it was preparing to move To-Day or To-morrow to a new Camp.
